PRESS RELEASE

Faruki Ireland & Cox P.L.L. announced today that it will open an office in Cincinnati.

A nationally known litigation firm, Faruki Ireland & Cox P.L.L., added an office in Cincinnati in order to better serve its clients. "We have been trying cases in state and federal courts in Cincinnati since our firm opened 20 years ago," explained Charlie Faruki, Managing Partner. "We already have cases and clients in Cincinnati, so it is simply an expansion to meet the needs of our existing clients." Jeff Ireland added that Cincinnati lacks a purely business litigation firm with the size, strength and experience of Faruki Ireland & Cox P.L.L.

The firm handles a wide range of business litigation throughout Ohio and the U.S. Faruki Ireland & Cox P.L.L. has a national reputation for its work in class actions, securities, products liability, patent and other IP cases, antitrust, privacy, information security, and other large cases. It is also well-known for handling breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duty cases, competitive issues, such as trade secrets, advertising and covenants not to compete as well as employment cases.

Many of the firm's lawyers have been honored by their peers through selection to the American College of Trial Lawyers, International Society of Barristers, America's Best Lawyers, Litigation Counsel of America, and Ohio Super Lawyers. Charlie Faruki has been repeatedly selected as among the top ten Super Lawyers in Ohio. Charlie Faruki and Jeff Ireland have been selected as among the top 50 lawyers in Cincinnati. Chambers USA, which annually selects America's leading business lawyers, describes the firm as "widely respected for the number of attorneys in its ranks who have trial experience," and it "handles the full gamut of business litigation and disputes." Chambers lists Charlie Faruki as one of the top four lawyers in Ohio.

Jeff Cox, who will be in charge of the Cincinnati office, indicated that "we will staff the office initially with five attorneys, and we expect and are prepared to accommodate growth." Partner, Ron Raether, who is recognized nationally for his expertise in technology and privacy-related disputes, will be full-time in the Cincinnati office. The firm's offices will be located in the PNC Building, 201 East Fifth Street.

Faruki Ireland & Cox P.L.L. started in 1989, when nine lawyers left a larger multistate firm. It has grown to its present size of 30 attorneys by focusing only on business disputes that are resolved through litigation, arbitration and mediation.
